Supreme Court Decision—The State of Nevadae & rel. W. W. Hobert vs. G. W. Haffaker, Treasurer of Washoe County, Nevada.

[OPINION BY BEATTY, J.]

Montion was made in our issue of Yesterday murning that the case of the State vs. Washoe county, for certain tax money, had been decided adversa to the latter. Yesterday we have the first terms of the latter. Yesterday we have the first terms of the latter. Yesterday we have the first terms of the latter. Yesterday we have the first terms of the latter. Yesterday we have the latter terms of the latter. Yesterday we have the latter terms of the latter. Yesterday we have the latter terms of the latter terms advorsn to the latter. Xesterday we received the decision, from which it will be seen that the Court has reached an equitable conclusion, and that the county dows not lose but the thirteenthy of the year court has levered the lever Chastley the county dows not lose but the lever chastley the lever the lev five-thirtoenths of the per cont., being the provatu of State and county taxation. The docision is an interesting one, and we call the attention the state of the of our taxpayers to it. According to the decision we owe the State $2,140, which we will pay, and Mr. Huffaker Branker OE may as well hand the money over:

This is a proceeding by mandamus This is a proceeding by munitarius against the Treasurer of Washee county to compol him to pay into the Christians and the Chri the State Treasury the sum of $5,-584 28, paid to him by the Central Pacific Railroad Company, under the provisions of "An Act prescribing an additional ponulty for nonpay-ment of taxes in certain cases after suit," approved March 7th, 1873, which reads as follows: which reads as follows:

"Section 1. In all suits for fine collection of deliminent taxes originally brought in the District Courts, Brown Trank Brown of Brown EA where the amount exceeds three hundrod dollars, the complaint and summons shall demand, and the judgment shall be entered, for sovenly live per contum, in addition to the tax, ten per contum thereon and costs provided in the Act to provide revenue for the purpose of the government of the State of Nevada, and the Act amendatory thereof; and such tax, penalty and costs shall not be discharged, nor shall the judgment discharged, nor shall the judgment thereof be satisfied, except by the payment of the tax, original penalty herein prescribed, in full."

The sum of $5,564.28 above specdred dollars, the complaint and summons shall demand, and the judg-

The relator contends that it but ligant Dail from the longs wholly to the State, and the respondent that it belongs wholly to the state of the respondent that it belongs wholly to the long that it belongs the long that it belong the the county. The question is one of statutory construction morely, and we think that both parties are partly in the right and partly in the wrong.

This penalty of twenty-five per centum is assessed upon the aggregate amount of taxes dum to the Stuff.

and county, of which two thickenths were due to the State and eight thirteenths to the county.

The law makes no express disposition of the penalty, and it becomes a question of construction which disposition of it the Legislature intended.

We think the respective in the legislature intended.

We think the populty is to be re- Charles M. So regarded, the obvious conclusion is that the ponalty Conformal's Noteman Jates and the fax—in this case five thirtoenths to the State and eight-thirteenths to the county.

The penalty of ten per centum (C. L., 3148), to which this populty of twenty-five per centum is additional, is expressly given to the countles, still from that circumstance the relator argues on the principle of each pressio unius, etc., that this penalty must go to the State, while the respondent comes to the exactly opposite conclusion that it must follow additional. We think, however, that control of those arguments—which to some extent destroy each other—is of as much resident. the disposition of that to which it is is of as much weight as the consider- Cualingham G W ation upon which we have our construction of the law, above stated.

Let the writ be made premptory that the respondent pay over fivethirteenths of the amount claimed in the petition, viz: $5,564-28.
